

2-12-1965

The Ledger and Times, February 12, 1965

The Ledger and Times

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt>

Recommended Citation

The Ledger and Times, "The Ledger and Times, February 12, 1965" (1965). The Ledger & Times. 4734.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt/4734>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ledger & Times by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

BURUARY 11, 1965
The rapidly growing this century, coins were that many private reducing coins. This by the Federal gov-1964, when private holders.

took its name from at minted in 1819 at or the valley (that) Bohemia. This coin
and a Joachimsthaler, short, Thaler was used dealer and then

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

19
10-oz. Jar

Published as a Public Utility by the United Press International

Largest Circulation
Both In City
And In County

THE LEDGER & TIMES

The Only Afternoon Daily In Murray And Calloway County

United Press International

In Our 86th Year

Murray, Ky., Friday Afternoon, February 12, 1965

Murray Population 10,100

Vol. LXXXVI No. 36

HIGHWAY WILL DIVIDE CITY PROPERTY

Fourteen File For Office Here

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

The old style can opener has its advantages. That is the one which has a cork screw, a handle in one end and the can opener at the other end.

Of course you might slip every now and then and rip open a finger on the jagged edge of the can but that is an occupational hazard of opening a can.

What could be better than thought that getting an electric can opener. It will cut down that hard labor of opening a can, it would be a nice addition to all the gadgets in the kitchen, and it would also make a nice Christmas gift.

That was our thinking on this matter of the electric can opener.

Well it does have some drawbacks although admittedly it will open a can.

Take for instance the other night. We were opening a can of some kind of juice and we did not push up on the trigger fast enough and cut the whole top out of the can. The last we saw of the top it was sinking gradually to the bottom of the can.

Of course this is a small matter, but it makes you feel sort of foolish.

Then when one of the kids opens a can usually they leave the top stuck on the can opener and if you are not careful you will cut your self open from one side to the other.

A hot game last night at Hazel between the First and the Second grade. It was real close with the Second grade winning by only two points. The score? It was two to nothing.

Closer than that was the game between the Third and Fourth grades. The Fourth grade won the game by only one point. The score in this game was 4 to 3.

Looks as though there is another Joe Fuls in the crowd somewhere.

County Judge Bob Miller and Commonwealth Attorney James Lauster in deep consultation in the halls of the courthouse.

Dr. Borys Surawicz speaker at the Rotary Club yesterday was born in Moscow, Russia. Speaks English exceedingly well however you can detect an accent. He told the club he would never mistake the accent as one from Eastern Kentucky.

He seemed to think a lot of Charles Mercer who drove him to Murray. Charles has his M. D. degree now and is taking further work at UK Medical School.

You won't find any prouder parents than Mr. and Mrs. Mercer.

O. B. Boone, Jr. is a pianist.

Joe Thurman is a partner now in Shackelford & Goode. He's a CPA.

Mrs. Jack Sykes has had a pet squirrel for some time. The squirrel is grown and is a good pet.

Everytime you call someone up stairs-at our house, Huff the Guinea Pig starts whistling, or squealing or whatever they do.

When you stop calling, she stops whistling. When you start again she

(Continued on Page 4)

Substitute Valves, Vessels, Are Big Heart Advancements

Dr. Borys Surawicz

Glen Sims Is Speaker For Kiwanis Club

Glen Sims, Associate County Agent in charge of 4-H work in Calloway County, was the speaker last night at the Kiwanis Club.

Sims showed a film, "The Paducah Story" which showed the automotive program among 4-H clubs sponsored by the Firestone Rubber Company.

Sims told the Kiwanians that a large number of people were involved in the program last year. Four hundred and sixteen young people were enrolled in the automotive course in Calloway County and 283 of them had perfect attendance during the course.

Three units were taught in the course: driving, motor maintenance and operation. Three hundred and fifty of the enrollees made a trip to Chicago after the completion of the course to visit points of interest. William Boyd of the Kiwanis Club made this trip as one of the adults who accompanied the large group.

Purpose of the course is to promote safety in driving, give knowledge of how an automobile should be operated and to prepare young people to take their driver's license examination.

Sims pointed out that the number of lives lost annually on the highways amounts to more than the population of Paducah.

127 are enrolled in the course this year. The local effort is the largest in the nation Sims told the Kiwanians. This year the group will make a trip to St. Louis.

The club met last night at 6:30 with President Arlie Scott presiding.

MSC Women's Society Bridge Is Next Week

A story run in Thursday's issue was completely incorrect and the correct information is being run in today's issue of the Ledger and Times. The Ledger regrets any inconvenience the story yesterday might have caused.

The Murray State College Women's Society will hold its regular monthly bridge and canasta Thursday, February 18, at 7:30 p.m. in Rooms 1 and 2 of the Student Union Building. All ladies who would like to attend and who have not attended the previous sessions are cordially invited to make reservations by calling Billie Price at 762-3379 by February 15. The ladies who have attended the previous sessions will be contacted by telephone.

All who plan to attend are reminded that reservations cannot be accepted after the February 18 deadline. Those who make a reservation and first at the last minute that they cannot attend, must assume the responsibility of sending a substitute. Cooperation regarding this rule will be greatly appreciated a spokesman said.

Great strides have been made in heart research, Dr. Borys Surawicz told the Murray Rotary Club yesterday, however much is still to be learned. He pointed out that in research it is not always known just how some particular phase might be used in actual practice.

He gave an example some research that had been done on the ground squirrel. The scientist who made the research was curious as to how the squirrel could hibernate and just what took place in the small animal's body when it went into hibernation.

It was discovered that the body processes slowed down greatly and that the temperature of the body was also lowered and that the entire process was highly efficient. These findings led to the idea of lowering the body temperature of a human being when brain and heart surgery was to be done.

By lowering the temperature of the body, body processes slowed giving the surgeon more time to perform needed surgery.

He pointed out that plastic valves, the replacement of blood vessels from dead persons or by plastic tubing, drugs for the lowering of blood pressure and a pace-making battery imbedded in the human body represented some of the major advancements in heart research.

The latter advancement is used when a heart block occurs and the heart needs some device to pace the beating.

The coronary and the stroke together represent the major killers today, he continued.

Much of the money contributed today is used for research he told the club and much progress is being made.

Dr. Surawicz was introduced by Dr. Hugh Houston who has brought a leading cardiologist to Murray each February for the past fourteen years.

Guests of Dr. Houston were Dr. Charles Mercer of the University of Kentucky and Dr. Harry Whayne of Murray.

Wayne Pooley of the Fertilizer Division of Southern States, Russellville, and Jim Coleman of the Seed Division of the company, Richmond, were guests of Bob Perry, Herbert Brinn was a guest of Jim Harrison. Herbert Brooks was a guest of Henry McKenna.

While in Murray yesterday, Dr. Surawicz spoke to members of the Calloway County Medical Society, hospital personnel, and checked local heart patients with his physicians.

He is Associate Professor of Medicine and Chief of the Cardiovascular Section at the University of Kentucky School of Medicine.

FIVE DAY FORECAST

LOUISVILLE 4PM — The five-day Kentucky weather outlook, Saturday through Wednesday, by the U.S. Weather Bureau:

Temperatures will average near normal highs of 43 to 51 and normal lows of 24 to 32.

The weekend will be colder followed by warm again around the first of next week and cold again in mid-week.

Precipitation will average approximately three-quarters of an inch mostly as rain during the first of next week.

ARRIVES IN TOKYO

TOKYO (UPI) — Indian Foreign Minister Subandrio arrived Thursday on a four-day visit which will include talks with Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and other officials. Subandrio is going to work in Japan's good will offices in helping to work out settlement of the dispute over Bonin between Indonesia and Malaysia.

CREWMEMBERS LOST

MOSCOW (UPI) — All crewmembers were lost when four Soviet trawlers sank in a storm in the Barents Sea on Jan. 19, the Communist party newspaper Pravda reported Thursday. The number of victims was not given.

Opinions On Acre-Pound Quota Sought

By MARGARET KILGORE
United Press International
WASHINGTON 4PM — A joint agriculture committee will take to the road next week to let the country's tobacco growers express their opinions of a proposed "acre-poundage" proposal to tighten federal tobacco controls.

House Agriculture Committee Chairman Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., announced at the close of the congressional hearings here Thursday that Senate and House committees will journey to Raleigh, N.C., Feb. 16, Florence, S.C., Feb. 17, and Moultrie, Ga., Feb. 18.

He advised Agriculture Undersecretary Charles Murphy that a member of the Agriculture Department staff should accompany the congressmen and be prepared for a barrage of tobacco growers' questions on the controversial quota proposals.

Murphy earlier had disclosed the administration's position on the bill which will be put to a vote among tobacco growers later this year.

Testifying before a House Agriculture subcommittee, Murphy called for an amendment into a pending bill under which the acre-poundage proposal would go into effect only if "more than 56 2-3 per cent" of the growers favored it.

He said the bill should be amended to read "more than 54 per cent" of the growers voting.

Murphy offered the administration's position on one of the most controversial points of the bill which gives the growers the right to decide whether they prefer the present marketing of flue-cured tobacco based on an acreage basis or whether they want the acre-poundage basis.

The council held a discussion on just what should be done about conveying the right of way to the state for the highway extension. Some of the councilmen felt that the city should grant the state the right of way along the present land fill site, which will soon be abandoned, as far as using it as a land fill site is concerned, then charge them for the right of way which extends through the recently acquired twenty-two acres.

Other councilmen felt that due to present commitments by the state in the county and because of other considerations, the entire right of way should be conveyed to them free of charge.

It was decided by the council that a committee be appointed to negotiate with state officials on the right of way, then report back to the council for action. This committee is composed of Mayor Holmes Ellis City Attorney Wells Overbey, and the council chairman of the Finance, Sanitation, and Special Problems committee, Joe Dick, Roy Starke and Preston Ordway respectively.

Mayor Ellis emphasized that the city and state officials had always cooperated in ventures in the area, and that the present problem on the right of way could be resolved to the mutual satisfaction of both parties.

The right of way through this twenty-two acre tract will take about four acres or about 20 per cent of the land area, in addition to splitting the tract into and making part of it unusable.

When the city bought the property it was seeking a nearby area which could be used for a land fill site. The present land fill site is located due north of Chestnut Street and is about even with the back of the Ryan property. This site is now filled with garbage from the city and is covered deeply with a layer of soil. It is now planned to move the entire land fill operation to the new area, one-half mile north, next week.

The new land fill site is in the city limits. This action has been accomplished with in the past two months, and the final action annexing the property was consummated last night with the second and final reading of the annexation ordinance.

Mayor Ellis in other action, suggested that the small yellow stop signs at some of the intersections in the city be replaced with the large red ones which have been put into use in the past several months.

It was estimated that approximately 100 of these signs will have to be replaced. The yellow signs are about 18" in diameter while the red ones are 24" in diameter and are much more easily seen. The signs cost about $4.00 each. The council voted to replace fifty of them this year and fifty of them next year.

Bids were opened on two tractor tires for the Murray Natural Gas System. Bids were $20.32 per tire. Master Tire Service bid $24.81 each and McKee Tractor and Equipment Company bid $27.96 each. The tires are for the front wheels of a gas system tractor.

The gas system will adopt the same hours as the other city departments and will be closed on Saturday, beginning on March 1. The City Clerk's office will remain open on Saturday morning as usual.

The city has 46 1/2 miles of city streets it was reported.

The Water & Sewer committee and the mayor will seek some solution.

(Continued on Page 4)

Council Holds Discussion On Conveying Right-Way To State

The proposed extension of North 17th Street which is to run almost due north from the present street, where it intersects Chestnut Street, toward the Scott's Grove Baptist Church on the Benton Highway, will extend through the recently acquired city property, it was pointed out last night in the meeting of the Murray City Council.

Mayor Holmes Ellis explained to the council that the extension will follow the present gravel road to the twenty-two acre tract the city purchased for use as a land fill site. The plans call for the highway to proceed through this property, leaving most of the property on the east side of the highway and leaving a wedge shape piece of property on the west side of the new road.

That land which will lie on the west side of the new road will not be useable to any degree, however the city will be able to use the rest of the property as planned.

A lengthy discussion was held by the city council as to the terms it would convey the property to the state. Mayor Ellis pointed out that he was advised by state highway officials that it was normal procedure for a city to convey right-of-way property to the state without charge, in the event city property was involved in such a project.

Mayor Ellis told the council however, that he felt that this case was somewhat different in that the city had just purchased the property for a specific purpose (for use as a conveniently located land fill site).

He also pointed out that the city has not even paid for the property as yet. The city paid approximately $11,000 for the property including a swap-out of one acre with the former owner. The city purchased all but one acre of the land, then swapped, other city property, near the present land fill site, for this one acre.

The council held a discussion on just what should be done about conveying the right of way to the state for the highway extension. Some of the councilmen felt that the city should grant the state the right of way along the present land fill site, which will soon be abandoned, as far as using it as a land fill site is concerned, then charge them for the right of way which extends through the recently acquired twenty-two acres.

Other councilmen felt that due to present commitments by the state in the county and because of other considerations, the entire right of way should be conveyed to them free of charge.

It was decided by the council that a committee be appointed to negotiate with state officials on the right of way, then report back to the council for action. This committee is composed of Mayor Holmes Ellis City Attorney Wells Overbey, and the council chairman of the Finance, Sanitation, and Special Problems committee, Joe Dick, Roy Starke and Preston Ordway respectively.

Mayor Ellis emphasized that the city and state officials had always cooperated in ventures in the area, and that the present problem on the right of way could be resolved to the mutual satisfaction of both parties.

The right of way through this twenty-two acre tract will take about four acres or about 20 per cent of the land area, in addition to splitting the tract into and making part of it unusable.

When the city bought the property it was seeking a nearby area which could be used for a land fill site. The present land fill site is located due north of Chestnut Street and is about even with the back of the Ryan property. This site is now filled with garbage from the city and is covered deeply with a layer of soil. It is now planned to move the entire land fill operation to the new area, one-half mile north, next week.

The new land fill site is in the city limits. This action has been accomplished with in the past two months, and the final action annexing the property was consummated last night with the second and final reading of the annexation ordinance.

Mayor Ellis in other action, suggested that the small yellow stop signs at some of the intersections in the city be replaced with the large red ones which have been put into use in the past several months.

It was estimated that approximately 100 of these signs will have to be replaced. The yellow signs are about 18" in diameter while the red ones are 24" in diameter and are much more easily seen. The signs cost about $4.00 each. The council voted to replace fifty of them this year and fifty of them next year.

Bids were opened on two tractor tires for the Murray Natural Gas System. Bids were $20.32 per tire. Master Tire Service bid $24.81 each and McKee Tractor and Equipment Company bid $27.96 each. The tires are for the front wheels of a gas system tractor.

The gas system will adopt the same hours as the other city departments and will be closed on Saturday, beginning on March 1. The City Clerk's office will remain open on Saturday morning as usual.

The city has 46 1/2 miles of city streets it was reported.

The Water & Sewer committee and the mayor will seek some solution.

(Continued on Page 4)

Al McKay

Large Tower Nearing Completion On South Side Of The City

Al McKay of the Murray Cablevision Company stands in front of the huge tower which is rising directly across from the Martin's Chapel Methodist Church. The tower will receive signals from a number of television stations in the area and in turn will be "piggybacked" to subscribers in Murray via coaxial cables which are being strung over the city.

Billy Streets and McKay are in Murray at this time supervising the installation of the tower and equipment.

The system is expected to be operational in the spring.

Cablevision has no facilities for any type of broadcast, its sole function being to bring quality television reception from many stations into the homes of local residents.

McKay said that the Cablevision system will not only increase the variety of programs available but will also eliminate outside interferences such as automobile ignitions, dishwashers and other electrical and mechanical devices.

The Murray Cablevision Company is owned by Meredith-Avco, Inc. is a division of Meredith Publishing Company and Avco, Inc. The publishing company owns Better Homes & Gardens and publishes many trade journals. It also owns broadcasting facilities, both radio and TV in several cities.

Avco Corporation is a manufacturing concern which makes airplanes engines, and owns a number of radio and TV stations.

Murray Lodge 105 FRAM will meet Monday night, February 15, at 7:30 p.m. Bro. Henry McKenna will be the speaker, and will observe Washington's birthday.

LODGE TO MEET

Murray Lodge 105 FRAM will meet Monday night, February 15, at 7:30 p.m. Bro. Henry McKenna will be the speaker, and will observe Washington's birthday.

Trials In The Court Of Judge Robert Miller Are Listed

Following are the cases tried in the court of Judge Robert O. Miller over the past several days. According to court records the following occurred.

Peggy Duncan, issuing and uttering a cold and worthless check, the Sheriff. Fined $10.00 and costs of $15.50. Made restitution of $47.00.

Joe G. Stanley, Franklin, Kentucky, speeding, State Police. Fined $10.00 and costs suspended.

Donald Lee Smith, Mayfield, speeding, State Police. Fined $10.00 and costs of $15.50.

John M. Renfro, Carmi, Illinois, DWI amended to reckless driving, State Police. Fined $10.00 and costs of $10.50.

Dewey Morris, Jr., Clarksville, Tennessee, issuing and uttering a cold and worthless check amended to breach of peace, the Sheriff. Given thirty days in county jail at hard labor suspended on condition he not write cold checks for period of one year.

Kenneth D. Brown, Oatesboro, Kentucky, issuing and uttering a cold and worthless check, amended to breach of peace, the Sheriff.

Given thirty days in county jail at hard labor suspended on condition he not write cold checks for period of one year.

Fred Bryant, a fugitive from justice in the state of Tennessee wherein he stands charged with the offense of violation of the bad check law by obtaining money by unpaid check. Waived extradition hearing and transferred to state of Tennessee.

Ernest Basley, DWI and no operator's license. Fined $10.00 and costs of $10.50.

Debra Rowland, abandoning a pregnant wife, the Sheriff. Bound over to the grand jury.

Hershel Medlin, Jr., Camden, Tennessee, State Police. Fined $10.00 and costs suspended.

Cradie Cohen, public drunk, the Sheriff. Given three days in jail.

James H. Manning, issuing and uttering a cold and worthless check, the Sheriff. Given ten days in jail suspended on condition he not write cold checks for six months. Restitution of $10.00 made to Early Bird Oil Company.

COPY NOT ALL READABLE

made earlier about recommendations, censured, too. Also censured Louis-William Cowger along with the faculty group said "doubts" whether he had the ability to lead the community with responsible leadership. Cowger was said to be "discontinued" at the staff, not hired.

took particular exception to the use of the word "discontinued" at the staff, not hired. The board statement said if the faculty action of retaining or releasing a member of the staff had been a strong vote, in our opinion, the intercollegiate level would have been discontinued at the staff, not hired.

WHEN YOU MOTORS

PROFIT OR USED CAR

EEZE

PANY

FRIDAY — FEBRUARY 12, 1965

THE LEDGER & TIMES — MURRAY, KENTUCKY

Television Schedule

Channel 5 - WLAC-TV CBS

Week of Feb. 13—Feb. 19

Daily Monday through Friday
5:45 Farm News
6:00 Country Junction
7:45 Morning News
7:55 Morning Weather
8:00 Captain Kangaroo
9:00 TV Bingo
9:30 I Love Lucy
10:00 Andy of Mayberry
10:30 The McGees
11:00 Love of Life
11:25 Robert Trout News
11:30 Search For Tomorrow
11:45 The Guiding Light
12:00 The World at Noon
12:30 Old Time Singing Convention
12:35 As The World Turns
1:00 Password
1:30 House Party
2:00 To Tell the Truth
2:25 Doug Edwards News
2:30 Edge of Night
3:00 The Secret Storm
3:30 Popeye and Friends
4:30 Big Show
5:30 CBS Evening News

Saturday, Feb. 13

7:00 Eddie Hill Variety Show
8:00 Alvin Show
8:30 Tennessee Tuxedo
9:00 Quick Draw McGraw
9:30 Mighty Mouse
10:00 Lingo, The Lionhearted
10:30 The Jetsons
11:00 Sky King
11:30 My Friend Flicka
12:00 Popeye
12:30 Scratch Match Bowling
1:00 Great Moments in Music
1:45 Panatomic
2:00 CBS Golf Classic
4:00 Big Show
5:00 Loyd Thaxton Show
6:00 Newsweek
6:15 Radar Weather
6:30 Today in Sports
6:50 Jackie Gleason Show
7:30 Gliban's Island
8:00 The Entertainers
9:00 Gunsmoke
10:00 Saturday Night News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:30 Today in Sports
10:35 Films of the 50's

Sunday, Feb. 14

6:00 Sunrise Semester
7:00 Singing Time in Dixie
8:00 Little Country Church
9:00 Heaven's Jubilee
10:00 Camera Three 10:30 Word of Life
11:00 Faith for Today
11:30 Popeye
12:15 Changing Times
12:30 The Faceoff
1:00 Vandy Basketball
1:30 CBS Sports Spectacular
2:00 Alumni Fun
3:30 The McGees
4:30 Spelldown
4:30 Amateur Hour
5:00 Twentieth Century
5:30 Death Valley Days
6:00 Lassie
6:30 My Favorite Martian
7:00 Ed Sullivan
8:00 For the People
9:00 Candid Camera
9:30 What's My Line
10:00 Sunday News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:20 Woods 'N' Waters
10:35 Million Dollar Movie

Monday, Feb. 15

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 To Tell the Truth
7:00 I've Got a Secret
7:30 Andy Griffith
8:00 Lucy Show
8:30 Movie of the Week
10:00 Big News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:30 Today in Sports
10:30 Million Dollar Movie
10:35 CBS Reports
11:30 Million Dollar Movie

Tuesday, Feb. 16

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 Marshall Dillon
7:00 Joey Bishop
7:30 Red Skelton
8:30 Petticoat Junction
9:00 The Hollow Crown
10:00 Big News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:30 Million Dollar Movie

Wednesday, Feb. 17

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 Mr. Ed
7:00 My Living Doll
7:30 Beverly Hills 75
8:00 Dick Van Dyke Show
8:30 Cara Williams Show
9:00 An Hour With Robert Goulet
9:00 The Reporter
10:00 Big News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:20 Today in Sports
10:30 Jack Green Show
10:35 Films of the 50's

Thursday, Feb. 18

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 The Munsters

Channel 8 - WSIX-TV ABC

Week of Feb. 13—Feb. 19

Daily Monday through Friday
5:45 News, Weather, Timetable
Five Golden Minutes
7:00 God Is the Answer
7:15 Jake Hess and the Imperials
7:30 News with Jim Kent
7:40 Weather with Gil Green
7:45 Superman
8:15 Capt. Crooks Crew
10:30 Missing Links
11:00 Father Knows Best
11:30 Tennessee Ernie Ford
12:00 Company Calling
1:00 Amos 'n' Andy
1:30 Day in Court
1:45 News For Women
2:00 General Hospital
2:30 Queen For A Day
3:00 Trailmaster
4:00 Superman
4:30 Mickey Mouse Club
5:30 Bi-Rite News
5:40 WeatherScope
5:45 Ron Cochran with the News
6:00 The Rifleman
10:00 Newsweek
10:15 ABC News
10:25 Steve Allen Show
11:30 Five Golden Minutes

Saturday, Feb. 13

7:15 News, Weather and Timetable
7:30 Farmer's Almanac
8:00 Capt. Crooks Crew
8:30 Buffalo Bill
9:00 Shenandoah
9:30 Adeline Oakley
10:00 Cartoons
10:30 Porky Pig
11:00 Bugs Bunny
11:30 Hootchy Kootchy
12:00 American Bandstand
1:00 Teen Review
1:30 Shell's Wonderful World of Golf
2:30 Pro Bowlers Tour
4:00 Wide World of Sports
5:30 All-Star Wrestling
6:30 The King Family
7:30 The Way Out Men
8:30 Hollywood Palace
9:30 Wide Country
10:30 Hollywood Special

Sunday, Feb. 14

6:45 News, Weather
6:50 Capitol Report
7:00 God Is the Answer
8:00 Gospel Singing Caravan
9:00 TV Gospel Time
9:30 Bible and Cecil
10:00 Bull Winkle
10:30 News Scope
10:45 Great Moments of Music
11:00 Light Unto My Path
11:30 The Christophers
12:00 Oral Roberts
12:30 Littlest Angel
1:00 NBA Basketball
3:00 Classroom Quizbusters
3:30 Eye on the Issues
4:00 Science All-Stars
4:30 Know Your Bible
5:00 Trails West
5:30 Surfside Six
6:30 Wagon Train
7:30 Broadside
8:30 Sunday Night Movie
10:00 News Scope
10:15 ABC Scope
10:45 Championship Bowling

Monday, Feb. 15

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 To Tell the Truth
7:00 I've Got a Secret
7:30 Andy Griffith
8:00 Lucy Show
8:30 Movie of the Week
10:00 Big News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:30 Today in Sports
10:30 Million Dollar Movie
10:35 CBS Reports
11:30 Million Dollar Movie

Tuesday, Feb. 16

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 Marshall Dillon
7:00 Joey Bishop
7:30 Red Skelton
8:30 Petticoat Junction
9:00 The Hollow Crown
10:00 Big News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:30 Million Dollar Movie

Wednesday, Feb. 17

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 Mr. Ed
7:00 My Living Doll
7:30 Beverly Hills 75
8:00 Dick Van Dyke Show
8:30 Cara Williams Show
9:00 An Hour With Robert Goulet
9:00 The Reporter
10:00 Big News
10:15 Radar Weather
10:20 Today in Sports
10:30 Jack Green Show
10:35 Films of the 50's

Thursday, Feb. 18

6:00 Newsbeat
6:15 Radar Weather
6:20 Today in Sports
6:30 The Munsters

Channel 16 - WPSD-TV NBC

Week of Feb. 13—Feb. 19

Daily Monday through Friday
7:00 Today Show
9:00 Romper Room
9:25 NBC Morning Report
9:30 What's This Song
9:55 NBC News
10:00 Wed. Inauguration to 4:30
10:30 Jeopardy
11:00 Say When
11:30 Truth or Consequences
11:55 NBC Day Report
12:00 News, Farm Markets
12:15 Pastor Speaks
12:30 Let's Make a Deal
12:55 NBC News
1:00 Moment of Truth
1:30 The Doctors
2:00 Another World
2:30 You Don't Say
3:00 Match Game
3:25 NBC News Report
3:30 M. T. W. F. "Love That Bob"
3:30 Th. Murray College
4:00 M. T. W. F. Popeye
4:30 M. T. W. Th. Rifleman
4:30 F. Dance Party to 5:30
5:00 M. W. Car 54
5:00 Th. Doble Gillis
5:30 Huntley-Brinkley
6:00 News
6:10 Weather
6:20 Sports

Saturday, Feb. 13

7:00 R. F. D. TV
7:30 A. P. The Fence Post
7:55 News
8:00 Dennis the Menace
10:00 Dennis the Menace
10:30 Pary
11:00 Exploring
12:00 Weekend at the Movies
1:45 Great Moments of Music
2:00 SEC Basketball
5:00 Big Three Golf
5:00 4 State Bowling
6:00 Porter Waggoner Show
6:30 Flipper
7:00 Kentucky Jones
7:30 Mr. Magoo
8:00 Saturday Night at the Movies
10:00 Saturday Report
10:15 Weekend at the Movies

Sunday, Feb. 14

8:00 Jake Hess and the Imperials
8:30 Paducah Devotion
9:15 Hamilton Brothers
9:30 Christophers
9:45 Sacred Heart
10:00 This is the Life
10:30 The Answer
11:00 Popeye
11:30 Watch Mr. Wizard
12:00 File 6
12:30 Frontiers of Faith
1:00 Gospel Singing Jubilee
2:00 Sunday
3:00 NBC Sports in Action
4:00 Wild Kingdom
4:30 O. E. College Bowl
5:30 Meet the Press
5:30 Profiles in Courage
6:30 Wonderful World of Color
7:30 Branded
8:00 Bonanza
9:00 The Rogues
9:00 News, Weather, Sports
10:15 Weekend at the Movies

Monday, Feb. 15

6:30 Karen
7:00 Man from U. N. C. L. E.
8:00 Alfred Hitchcock
9:00 News Picture
10:15 Olympics
10:30 Tonight Show
10:35 Tonight Show
11:00 Mr. Novak
11:30 Bullseye
8:30 Week That Was
9:00 Bell Telephone Hour
10:00 News Picture
10:15 Accent
10:45 Tonight

Tuesday, Feb. 16

6:30 Karen
7:00 Man from U. N. C. L. E.
8:00 Alfred Hitchcock
9:00 News Picture
10:15 Olympics
10:30 Tonight Show
10:35 Tonight Show
11:00 Mr. Novak
11:30 Bullseye
8:30 Week That Was
9:00 Bell Telephone Hour
10:00 News Picture
10:15 Accent
10:45 Tonight

Wednesday, Feb. 17

6:30 Karen
7:00 Man from U. N. C. L. E.
8:00 Alfred Hitchcock
9:00 News Picture
10:15 Olympics
10:30 Tonight Show
10:35 Tonight Show
11:00 Mr. Novak
11:30 Bullseye
8:30 Week That Was
9:00 Bell Telephone Hour
10:00 News Picture
10:15 Accent
10:45 Tonight

Thursday, Feb. 18

6:30 Karen
7:00 Man from U. N. C. L. E.
8:00 Alfred Hitchcock
9:00 News Picture
10:15 Olympics
10:30 Tonight Show
10:35 Tonight Show
11:00 Mr. Novak
11:30 Bullseye
8:30 Week That Was
9:00 Bell Telephone Hour
10:00 News Picture
10:15 Accent
10:45 Tonight

The Safe Way Thomas, Shore Featured On 2 1 Hour TV Shows Next Week

Even Lee
There need not be a catastrophe before congregations can work together. Various congregations may be interested in evangelizing a given city, or in supporting an evangelist to produce food and fiber in the critical years of war in the forties, they were cooperating, without coercive machinery, in the effort to feed and clothe the world. If every independent congregation will seek to fulfill its mission as an evangelizing agent ordained of God, there will be wonderful cooperation. With-out missionary societies, Christian foundations, or any other denominational machinery, the churches at Jerusalem, Antioch, Philippi, and at all other places where faithful working diligently in the same field, churches existed, cooperated. The field was the world. The task was to preach the gospel to every creature. When each Christian is diligently working to reach some, and each church is serving as a pillar and support of the truth, there is true cooperation. There is a working together, without a king, pope, or any other superman or super-machine. One has read the New Testament without much profit who has not been impressed by the simplicity and by the effectiveness of the New Testament picture of cooperation. The emphasis is on the work and not on the big machine men seem inclined to set up in any century. God did not set up the big machines! He authorized tens of thousands of little efforts rather than one of which men may glory or boast.

The local churches lost something of their identity in the centuries that followed the days of the apostles. Centralization developed in the hands of officials that were parallel to the officials of the Roman world. Men, in their efforts to improve on the Lord's simple plan copied what they saw in the world. A domination of our day may often be dated rather accurately by its type of government. The societies of the last century that disturbed churches of the world were heresies dealing with the lives of British monarchs. Ray Bolger is host on NBC's "Bell Telephone Hour". Others appearing will be Carol Lawrence, Harve Presnell, Regine Crespin, Sander Korby and Lorrin Hollander.

Performers on ABC's "Shindig" include Peter and Gordon, Vy De-De, Bobby Sherman, Steve Alaimo, Dee Dee Sharp, Jerry Lee Lewis, Sonny and Cher and Glen Campbell. NBC "Wednesday Night at the Movies" screens "Submarine Command" 10 through February 21. There will also be a service on Sunday morning at 10:00, February 21.

WHAT GOING ON AT YOUR CO-OP

We've just received a new shipment of garden seed. We have it both in bulk and in packages. Remember this seed has been treated for insects and disease.

Our lawn seed has arrived. We've got a good variety on hand. Don't overlook putting fertilizer on your lawn. We have plenty of -15-15-15 on hand.

Be sure to spray your cattle for lice. We have the recommended material.

We now have the new rat poison "Ratycate" and it's doing a good job.

You are welcome at the Coop Store at any time. We have a lot of items you will find which will come in handy around the home or farm. Come see us.

Calloway County Soil Improvement Association

Industrial Road Phone 753-2924

Over Stocked Sale

Take Advantage of Our Mistake!

We Need Floor Space!

ADMIRAL

The BALDWIN Model CDU3205

23" Quality TV

THIS MONTH ONLY, or

WHILE THEY LAST!

Large selection of beautiful console, wood cabinet TV Sets in a variety of finishes, including mahogany, walnut and maple...

AT A PRICE YOU NEVER THOUGHT POSSIBLE

Only $19995

DICK & DUNN

TV & ELECTRIC SERVICE

118 S. 12th Street Phone 753-3037

ON OUR CALENDAR...

It's Valentine Month

THANK YOU FOR BANKING WITH US

It's customer appreciation time... Time to tell you that we welcome each opportunity to serve you and time to say to all of our friends, "Thank you for banking with us!"

Main Office: 4th and Main

Downtown Branch: 5th and Poplar

Bank of Murray

THE FRIENDLY BANK MEMBER F.D.I.C.

Phone 753-1917 or 753-4947

Woman's World

Social Calendar

Friday, February 12
The Young Adults Sunday School Class of the Cherry Corner Baptist Church will have a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. at the Southside Restaurant.

Town and Country Homemakers Meet

The Town and Country Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. C. W. Jones. Mrs. John Nettles was co-hostess for the meeting. Mrs. Jones read the minutes and roll call and Mrs. James Fee conducted the business.

A lesson on hair styling was given by Mrs. Joe Dorrell. Ten members and four guests were present. The guests were Mesdames Frank Kane, G. O. Cull, Elton Waldrop, and Dale Lemmons. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

South Pleasant Grove Homemaker Club Has Meeting

The South Pleasant Grove Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Stanley Grogan, Monday, Feb. 8, at 1 p.m. Mrs. Maggie Boyd called the meeting to order. Mrs. J. H. Stewart gave the devotional from Mark I, verses 1-3.

Mrs. Grogan had the group in prayer and read some landscape notes. Mrs. Bob Orr led the group in singing.

The hostess served delicious refreshments, which were enjoyed by all. There were nine members present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mildred Orr on Monday, March 8.

Court 128 Women Of Woodcraft Met Last Week

Court 128, Women of Woodcraft met Tuesday night, Feb. 9, at the American Legion Hall. A business meeting was held at which time Mrs. James Shelton and Mrs. T. O. Cull were elected as delegates to the forthcoming Head Camp Convention to be held in Louisville.

Mrs. Allen Rose and Mrs. Gene Parker were elected as alternate delegates. Three new members, Mrs. Guy Spain, Mrs. Elton Waldrop and Mrs. Bud Sewell were initiated, during the meeting. Refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed by all those attending.

Local Women Attend First District Meet Of KFWC Wednesday

Several Murray ladies attended the Wednesday Midwinter Board Meeting of the First District, Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs at Paducah. The meeting was held at the Paducah Woman's Club clubhouse with Mrs. Bill Peak, Governor presiding.

Murray women making reports at the meeting were Mrs. C. C. Lowry, Second Vice-president for the state organization, Mrs. J. I. Hosick, State Arthurian chairman, Mrs. John Nanny, District Membership chairman.

Others in attendance from Murray were Mrs. Jack Kennedy, president of the Murray Women's Club, Mrs. Castle Parker, and Mrs. David Gowan.

The Grace Wyatt of College Presbyterian Church women will meet at the home of Mrs. William Boles, Dogwood Terrace, at 9:30 a.m.

The North Murray Homemakers Club will meet with Mrs. Bernice Boyd, 1819 Main Street, at 1:30 p.m.

A joint dinner meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be at the Triangle Restaurant at 6:30 p.m. Call Mesdames Cohen, Stubblefield, W. E. Shackelford, or Ronald Churchill for reservations by Wednesday.

Saturday, February 13
A Valentine Dance will be held at the Calloway County Country Club with Sellers Leach and his Orchestra furnishing the music.

The Murray State College Woman's Society are having a progressive dinner Saturday, February 13. Co-chairmen in charge are Mrs. Bailey Gore and Mrs. Eugene Schanzbacher. The main course will be served in the Student Union cafeteria. Please note change of location. If you have not been contacted by the telephone committee, please contact Mrs. Leonard Whitmer, 753-6062.

Monday, February 15
The Faxon 4-H Club will meet, Feb. 15, at 3:30 p.m. at the school.

Tuesday, February 16
The Faith Dorian Circle of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church will meet Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Morrison Galloway, 519 S. 8th Street. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Mary Alexander and Mrs. J. P. Copenhaver. The program leader is Mrs. Isaac Gannon.

The Harvest Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church will meet Tuesday night, Feb. 16, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Vernon Nance, on Dogwood Drive, in Walnut Estates.

The Brooks Cross Circle of the First Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. James Lassiter, 1313 Wells Blvd., at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. William Doe is the program chairman. Devotion by Mrs. James Wood. Co-hostesses, Mrs. Sid Jobs.

The Lydian Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Edgar Potts, Circumana Drive, at seven p.m. In charge of the arrangements will be the group composed of Mesdames Hugh Parrie, captain, Odell Haves, J. I. Hosick, Harry Jenkins, R. E. Kelley, J. N. Outland, Maynard Ragdale, Estine Swann, R. H. Thurman and Ralph Wilcox.

Spring Creek WMS Plans Book Study
The Spring Creek W.M.S. Circle met Wednesday, Feb. 10, at 8 o'clock. The program title chairman was Mrs. Novella Chambers.

Those present were Mrs. Dwight Shortland at a hobby when 15.

Their father, now retired, taught shorthand in New York City schools and to his sons.

The base pay in their civil service jobs is $14,000 a year—tops for an official court reporter in the nation.

Both are former national short-hand speed champions. Arnold was a winner in 1952, 1953 and 1954. William won in 1955, 1956 and 1957. Each took dictation in open competition at 200 words per minute, considered the peak of intelligible speech.

The twins have worked in the New York Supreme Court, Nassau County, Minnola, since 1949. During the war, both were drafted into the Army Air Force and stationed in Atlantic City, N. J., assigned to the same hotel room.

Both served as court-martial reporters. On the same set of orders, they were promoted to sergeant, shipped to the Philippines together, assigned to the same unit.

They were discharged in Manila and joined the reporting staff of war crimes commission trying Japanese war criminals.

Each reports an estimated four million words yearly in court, specializing in contested matrimonial cases and condemnation proceedings.

Tappan Wives Club Meets On Tuesday

The Tappan Wives Club dinner meeting was held Tuesday night, February 9, at 6 p.m. at the Triangle Inn.

Agnes Cain, vice-president, presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Lily Johnson. Thirteen members were present.

Hostesses for the night were Marge Klipp, chairman, Marge Miller, Freda Lovett and Betty Lowery. Hostesses for the next Tappan Wives Club meeting, which will be March 9, are Lily Johnson, chairman, Ruth Holland, Elsie Hewitt, and Katherine Kyle.

Kirksey PTA Board Enjoys Luncheon

The executive board of the Kirksey PTA met Tuesday, Feb. 9, at 10:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Billy Tidwell. A potluck luncheon was served at noon.

Those present for the meeting were Mesdames Kenyon Broadbent, Bobby Mitchell, Hartford Morris, Lillian Parrish, Malcolm Major, Clinton Burchett, Billy Tidwell, John Baker, Roy Rose, Harry Lee Potts, Alvin Dabney, and Max Bailey. Invitations for the Founders Day Program were made.

Invitations for the Founders Day Program were made.

Twin Brothers Get Credit For Activity

By PATRICIA MCCORMACK
United Press International
MINNEOLA, N. Y. (UPI) — Some-thing Arnold Cohen gets credit for what his brother, William, does and vice versa.

A new judge at the courthouse here, for example, one day took Arnold aside, saying:

"I'm amazed. You do twice as much work as any other official court reporter here."

On another occasion, a lawyer, also a newcomer to the courthouse, took William aside, telling him the same thing.

The Cohen brothers, 41, learned shorthand as a hobby when 15.

Their father, now retired, taught shorthand in New York City schools and to his sons.

The base pay in their civil service jobs is $14,000 a year—tops for an official court reporter in the nation.

Both are former national short-hand speed champions. Arnold was a winner in 1952, 1953 and 1954. William won in 1955, 1956 and 1957. Each took dictation in open competition at 200 words per minute, considered the peak of intelligible speech.

The twins have worked in the New York Supreme Court, Nassau County, Minnola, since 1949. During the war, both were drafted into the Army Air Force and stationed in Atlantic City, N. J., assigned to the same hotel room.

Both served as court-martial reporters. On the same set of orders, they were promoted to sergeant, shipped to the Philippines together, assigned to the same unit.

They were discharged in Manila and joined the reporting staff of war crimes commission trying Japanese war criminals.

Each reports an estimated four million words yearly in court, specializing in contested matrimonial cases and condemnation proceedings.

Dear Abby . . .

Further Proof

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You surely have heard the expression, "Great minds run in the same channel." Well, after a recent incident I think it can be said that "faithful minds" also run in the same channel.

I read your column in the LAKE WALES (FLA.) HIGHLANDER, and when I came across the letter from the serviceman signed "JERSEY," who wanted to know what a normal, healthy married man is supposed to do about his "physical needs" during long separations from his wife, I clipped it and sent it to my husband, who is serving with the U. S. Army in Saigon.

A few days later (too soon for him to have received the clipping), HE sent me the very same column, which HE had torn out of the SAIGON DAILY NEWS, which also carries DEAR ABBY. I am sure that article will help us both to remain faithful though separated for a long time. Thank you for your wise reply.

LONELY BUT LOYAL
DEAR LONELY: And thank you for your kind letter. I would like to say here that I received thousands of letters from servicemen and their wives. And today, while cynics eagerly point out that infidelity in modern marriage is on the rise, I am heartened by the obvious mutual love and faithfulness between the serviceman and the wife he left behind.

DEAR ABBY: My 17-year-old daughter keeps out of the bathtub leaving dirty rings for the toilet person to clean out. There isn't a day that I don't find her clothes kicked under the bed. I almost have to force her to brush her teeth and wear shoes around the house. Her room is always a mess. If I punish her for these things she says she's embarrassed to tell her friends why she's being punished because it's ridiculous to be punished for such silly reasons. She claims her girl friends do the same things and get by with them. I have two other daughters and they are as neat as I am. All three girls were trained in the same way in the same house. Why do I have so much trouble with this one? She is kind and good-natured, but, oh, so sloppy! Am I expecting too much of her? Where have I failed?

DEAR WORK OUT: If you honestly try to teach your daughter cleanliness and tidiness and she refused to learn, it is SHE who failed, not you. There is no accident for the difference in children and their reactions to "training." Keep after her, it just might sink in one of these days.

DEAR ABBY: In your answer to a letter you implied that a barber would not know the difference between a blackhead, a mole or a wart. Miss Van Buren, please be advised that the science of barbering today is far more advanced than it was in years gone by. A barber is required to know all about the diseases of the skin, scalp, hair and appendages. I thank you.

A UNION BARBER
DEAR BARBER: I am aware that many barbers daily perform the important service of alerting their clients to suspicious-looking growths on their faces. However, even though a barber may recognize moles, warts and blackheads, he is not licensed to treat or remove them.

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., for Abby's booklet "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

SEEN & HEARD
(Continued From Page 1)

starts again. She remembers Linus of Peanuts in some respects, because security to her is getting under a little towel and peeping out. As long as she is under the towel she is OK but when she gets out she feels like she is under an inquisitor's spotlight.

Household Hints
Stop radiator cover vibration by placing a strip of adhesive latex foam rubber along the inside edges of a loose cover.

A toothpick stuck in a clove of garlic will make removing the clove easier after a dish of food has been cooked.

Look. A big-car name on a small-car frame can't compete with a Chrysler. But it'll cost you practically the same money. That's a fact. Almost half the Chrysler models this year are priced only a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars. And remember this: we're talking about full-sized Chryslers, not junior editions—the factory doesn't make them. So don't settle for tazzmazazz. Move up to Chrysler, instead.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

"MISS CHINATOWN"—Mary Tom, 17, high schooler from Jamaica, N.Y., smiles her pleasure on winning the "Miss Chinatown USA" title in San Francisco. She reigns over Chinese New Year activities in San Francisco.

HIGHWAY WILL . . .

(Continued From Page One)

tion to alleviate the backing up of water into basements in some sections of the city, during heavy downpours of rain.

Mayor Ellis will attend the League of American Cities prelegislative conference in Washington, D. C. March 31, April 1.

Fire Chief Flavil Robertson reported that the large white fire truck is out of operation at the present time. The head and one piston will have to be replaced. This will be done as soon as the proper parts come in.

Mayor Ellis reported that part of Glendale Road is not passable at this time. The area in question is east of South Ninth Street. This part of this street is not in the city limits.

Rex Billington, Superintendent of the Murray Sanitation System reported that the bull-doser of the system is now back in operation. The equipment suffered damage recently when the electrical system shorted out and caught fire. Equipment of the Murray Water and Sewer System has been used at the land fill site in order to continue operations there.

What's New United Press International

Straight off the roll-for persons with sensitive or allergic skin is a special adhesive tape which contains no skin irritating elements. The tape is said to be the only hypo-allergenic tape with attractive appearance, excellent sticking qualities and plastic outer dispenser.

Shades of the old-time warming pan! Doing the same job today, but more up-to-date, is an electrical foot warmer to be spread across the foot of the bed beneath the bottom sheet. The warmer is made of white quilted cotton in double or twin size.

A new roll-on adhesive is designed to hold up stockings without need of garters. The substance, in liquid form, washes off both leg and stocking with plain water and without leaving a trace. It is suggested particularly for use under tight-fitting outerwear—such as stretch slacks, knits and sweat dresses. The manufacturer says the adhesive is non-toxic and non-allergic.

NOT MUCH LEFT—Lifeboat Station personnel lift body of a victim of the Eastern Air Lines DC-7 crash which claimed lives of all 84 persons aboard off Long Island, and (lower) here are some of the battered seats picked up by helicopters.

NOT MUCH LEFT—Lifeboat Station personnel lift body of a victim of the Eastern Air Lines DC-7 crash which claimed lives of all 84 persons aboard off Long Island, and (lower) here are some of the battered seats picked up by helicopters.

Don't be hoodwinked! If you pay for a big car, get one! Chrysler.

See us. We deliver.

TAYLOR MOTORS inc.

403 Poplar St.,

Murray, Ky.

DR. G. O. CULLI

announces the opening of his office

for the practice of

CHIROPRACTIC

Just south of the Peoples Bank Drive-In Branch on South 12th Street

On Monday, February 15, 1965

Hours: 8:30 to 12:00 and 2:00 to 5:30 p.m.

Saturday 8:00 to 12:00

OPEN HOUSE

Monday and Tuesday, February 15 and 16

from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The public is cordially invited

MASTER TIRE SERVICE
MURRAY'S COMPLETE CAR CARE CENTER
TIRES - OIL - GAS - MINOR REPAIRS
Mayfield Road, Near Five Points

Hazel Cafe

Open 7 Days Each Week
FEATURING DINNERS OF FISH COUNTRY HAM PIT BAR-B-Q
COUNTRY SAUSAGE BAKED HAM
We Are Now Across the Street in Our New Building
Plenty of Seats - Dining Room
EXTRA HELP FOR MORE EFFICIENT SERVICE
J. C. Gatliff, owner - Phone 492-9191

WANT ADS!

WANTED

1,000 BARRELS of yellow ear corn. $7.00 a barrel. Deliver to the Caloway County Coop Mill. TPO

NEEDED in immediate future. Ground floor office and display space in busy area. Will be permanent center. Contact by writing Post Office Box 32 H. P-16-C

NOTICE

L & M TREE SERVICE. All types tree pruning. Taking down of dangerous trees. All work guaranteed. Phone 753-5611. P-24-C

GUITAR LESSONS begin Feb. 20th. Guitar needed. Call 753-6297 or 753-2464. P-12-C

RAILROAD SALVAGE just received another big load of bargains. Portable stoves $1.99, room deodorizer $1.99, 3-piece salad bowl sets $1.99, desk lamps from $2.99. P-12-C

AT THE MOVIES

CAPITOL—Today thru Sat. FOR THOSE WHO THINK YOUNG, James Darren, Pamela Tiffin and FOLLOW THAT DREAM. Rive; Both in Color. MURRAY DRIVE-IN THEATRE—Today and Sat.—A TICKLE IN THE PAIR. Shirley Jones, Gig Young, and SUNDAY IN NEW YORK. Jane Fonda, Cliff Robertson; Both in Color. Starts Sunday—CHARGE, Cary Grant, Audrey Hepburn, Technicolor. P-13-C

WANTED TO BUY

SEVERAL COPIES of Jan. 30, Ledger & Times newspapers. Please bring to office of Ledger & Times. P-13-NC

LOST — FOUND

LOST: 2 bird dogs. Setter female, black and white. Young pointer male, orange and white. Both have collars with name plates. Please call 753-2346. P-12-C

FOR RENT

MODERN OFFICE SPACE, 524 square feet, first floor, air-conditioned, utilities furnished, parking space. Tobacco building, 206-208 Maple Street, Murray, Kentucky. If interested contact Western Dark Filled Tobacco Growers Association, Phone 753-3341 or 753-3342. H-17-C

2 NICE SLEEPING rooms for college boys, 1700 Miller Ave. Phone 753-2397. P-15-C

MOBILE HOMES

NEW 10' x 50' 2-BEDROOM MOBILE HOME NOW ONLY $3,295.00 with the new low-down payment of $195.00, with monthly payments in the $50.00 bracket. ALSO: New 12' Wide — AT ONLY $3,995.00 UNBELIEVABLE BUT TRUE

2 Big Lots TV Shows. From on the right as you come in town — or 1/2-mile past Noble Park on Highway 40 W. ST. CLAIR Mobile Homes Paducah, Kentucky

FOR SALE

ELECTROLUX SALES & Service, Box 213, Murray Ky. C. M. Sanders. Phone 382-3176 Lynville, Ky. P-25-C

NICE 3-BEDROOM brick, only two years old. On paved street, city sewer, paved drive, fenced back yard. Owner is being transferred out of town. Has paneled den, kitchen and utility room. Beautiful ceramic tile bath, storm windows and doors. Has FHA loan that owner will transfer. For Roberts Realty, 566 Main, Phone 753-1651. P-12-C

MALE HELP WANTED

SALESMAN, age no barrier. Must have own transportation, for short-term. Contacts furnished. For interview, write resume to Box 37 D, Ledger & Times, Murray, Ky. P-15-C

HOG MARKET

Federal State Market News Service, Friday, February 12, 1965 Kentucky Purchase-Area Hog Market Report. Estimated Receipts 1350 Head. Barrows and Sows: 100-120 lbs. $16.00-17.25; Few U. S. 1, 180-220 lbs. $17.25-18.10; U. S. 2 and 3 245-270 lbs. $19.75-17.00; U. S. 1, 2 and 3 160-175 lbs. $16.00-17.00; U. S. 2 and 3 some 400-600 lbs. $15.75-12.75; U. S. 1 and 2 250-400 lbs. $12.50-15.00.

If carpets look dull and dreary, remove the spots as they appear with this Lustrite. Rent electric shampooer $1. Manor House of Color. Southside Manor Shopping Center. P-15-P

MAKE AN OFFER. 1964 Impala Convertible, white with white top, 227 cu. in. PS & PB, radio, comfort and convenience group, auto, wire wheel covers, seat belts, tinted windows, or—1960 Dodge, two door sedan, auto, radio. Contact Jack Otterbacher, Clark Hall. P-15-P

VALENTINE SPECIAL. ABC registered, tiny toy 6-month-old girl, blonde, blue eyes, blonde hair, call Moe H. S. Bell 488-2363. P-15-C

SEVEN AND one half fancy pigs. Call Harris Geo. S. 4th St. P-15-P

Services Offered

FOR THE BEST in plumbing, repair call Elroy Sykes Plumbing Repair Service. Phone 753-6596. Concord, Highway. If possible call before 8:00 a.m. or after 4:00 p.m. Your business is appreciated. P-13-C

Business Highlights

By United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal government slapped restrictive taxes on new loans abroad of one year or longer to help solve the balance of payments problem. President Johnson also asked Congress to quit curbs on virtually all forms of capital outflow.

WASHINGTON — The Commerce Department disclosed that business inventories increased in December by $560 million, seasonally adjusted. However, the pace was smaller than in November.

NEW YORK — Secretary-Treasurer F. W. deLoach said the government had over the weekend had a "good" meeting with the United Steelworkers' National Executive Committee.

WASHINGTON — January retail sales were 7 per cent above a year ago, government figures disclosed.

AUSTIN, Tex. — National Western Life Insurance Co. said it had bought 51 per cent of the outstanding shares of Union Reserve Life Insurance Co. of Minn. N. D. Union Reserve is seven years old and has about $48 million in life insurance in force. One share of National Western Life will be exchanged for 2 1/2 voting shares of Union Reserve.

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS
1-Prison compartment
2-Highest point
3-Minor item
4-Atmospheric disturbances
5-Indefinite article
6-Exist
7-Pipen
8-Consumed
9-Wager
10-Part of foot
11-Den
12-Animal coats
13-Entirely
14-Guide's high
15-Places
16-Courageous
17-Weaken
18-Part of scale
19-Parrot (colloq.)
20-Parent
21-More rapid
22-Timed
23-Verve
24-Down
25-Goal at fraction
26-Function
27-Blurred article
28-Blurred article
29-Blurred article
30-Blurred article
31-Blurred article
32-Blurred article
33-Blurred article
34-Blurred article
35-Blurred article
36-Blurred article
37-Blurred article
38-Blurred article
39-Blurred article
40-Blurred article
41-Blurred article
42-Blurred article
43-Blurred article
44-Blurred article
45-Blurred article
46-Blurred article
47-Blurred article
48-Blurred article
49-Blurred article
50-Blurred article
51-Blurred article
52-Blurred article
53-Blurred article
54-Blurred article
55-Blurred article
56-Blurred article
57-Blurred article
58-Blurred article
59-Blurred article
60-Blurred article
61-Blurred article
62-Blurred article
63-Blurred article
64-Blurred article
65-Blurred article
66-Blurred article
67-Blurred article
68-Blurred article
69-Blurred article
70-Blurred article
71-Blurred article
72-Blurred article
73-Blurred article
74-Blurred article
75-Blurred article
76-Blurred article
77-Blurred article
78-Blurred article
79-Blurred article
80-Blurred article
81-Blurred article
82-Blurred article
83-Blurred article
84-Blurred article
85-Blurred article
86-Blurred article
87-Blurred article
88-Blurred article
89-Blurred article
90-Blurred article
91-Blurred article
92-Blurred article
93-Blurred article
94-Blurred article
95-Blurred article
96-Blurred article
97-Blurred article
98-Blurred article
99-Blurred article
100-Blurred article

Business Highlights

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS
1-Prison compartment
2-Highest point
3-Minor item
4-Atmospheric disturbances
5-Indefinite article
6-Exist
7-Pipen
8-Consumed
9-Wager
10-Part of foot
11-Den
12-Animal coats
13-Entirely
14-Guide's high
15-Places
16-Courageous
17-Weaken
18-Part of scale
19-Parrot (colloq.)
20-Parent
21-More rapid
22-Timed
23-Verve
24-Down
25-Goal at fraction
26-Function
27-Blurred article
28-Blurred article
29-Blurred article
30-Blurred article
31-Blurred article
32-Blurred article
33-Blurred article
34-Blurred article
35-Blurred article
36-Blurred article
37-Blurred article
38-Blurred article
39-Blurred article
40-Blurred article
41-Blurred article
42-Blurred article
43-Blurred article
44-Blurred article
45-Blurred article
46-Blurred article
47-Blurred article
48-Blurred article
49-Blurred article
50-Blurred article
51-Blurred article
52-Blurred article
53-Blurred article
54-Blurred article
55-Blurred article
56-Blurred article
57-Blurred article
58-Blurred article
59-Blurred article
60-Blurred article
61-Blurred article
62-Blurred article
63-Blurred article
64-Blurred article
65-Blurred article
66-Blurred article
67-Blurred article
68-Blurred article
69-Blurred article
70-Blurred article
71-Blurred article
72-Blurred article
73-Blurred article
74-Blurred article
75-Blurred article
76-Blurred article
77-Blurred article
78-Blurred article
79-Blurred article
80-Blurred article
81-Blurred article
82-Blurred article
83-Blurred article
84-Blurred article
85-Blurred article
86-Blurred article
87-Blurred article
88-Blurred article
89-Blurred article
90-Blurred article
91-Blurred article
92-Blurred article
93-Blurred article
94-Blurred article
95-Blurred article
96-Blurred article
97-Blurred article
98-Blurred article
99-Blurred article
100-Blurred article

DANCE

Friday Night THE-CREATORS Saturday Night THE RAMCHARGES "Valentine Eve"

MAXINE'S

Hwy. 79 Paris Landing, Tenn.

THE FLOWERING VINE

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 34

"IT WAS a good party, wasn't it?" Eloise Pincheon said to her granddaughter Cecily. "I know just how nervous Octavia Thompson was. With all her money, she can't make anyone feel at home in her house."

She took the emeralds that Cecily had given her and put them carefully away in a velvet-lined box. "I can remember the first time Mama let me wear these. It was at a dance, too, and I was, or thought I was, madly in love with an older man. A week later his engagement to another girl was announced and I thought my heart would break. Then Major Pincheon came along and I thanked heaven for my escape."

Cecily didn't pretend to misunderstand. "My heart isn't breaking, if it cracked at all, it was the day John came back and I knew that he wasn't exactly what I thought he was."

Eloise rose in quick defense of her favorite. "He hadn't changed at all. John was doomed for worldly success from the moment he was born. And you must admit that you are little fitted for a career hostess in Washington."

"I hate it," Cecily admitted. "I saw Vincent Leary leading that old Randy Chardin out for fresh air. What did he do with him?"

Cecily told her. "He must be terribly clever. I was so afraid that Randy would make a scene. Just who is this Vincent Leary?"

"He says he's a direct descendant of Loghain, the high king of Ireland who was converted to the Christian faith by Saint Patrick. He also says that his grandfather owned a pub in Dublin."

"Then he must be witty. There aren't many men with wit these days. Do you like him?"

Cecily paused before answering. "Like" wasn't exactly the right word. She did like Vincent, but she remembered his kisses on the gallery; she thought of how he had accompanied her to Dr. Cheney's apartment. "Yes, I like him. He's dependable. I think I like him quite a lot."

She was trying to analyze her feeling for Vincent, not so much for her grandmother's information as for her own. "I think I like him, too. Any one who could dispose of Randy Chardin with so little trouble must be dependable. I can't forget that you're a working girl. Run along to bed. I've got a book here that will, I hope, put me to sleep."

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

They aren't expected back until late in the evening.

"I know, but it's three now. If you get seven hours sleep, you'll be lucky."

Cecily smiled her thanks. "It was a kiss of affection and understanding. 'Don't worry about me, Grandma. I'll be all right.'"

Cecily was not listening. Her mind was on John and Louise and the approaching marriage, and her own unwelcome role as a bridesmaid. A vagrant thought crossed her mind.

"Then they won't have any wedding trip at all."

"Oh, your mind's still on John and Louise. And if she says she's going to Washington, you can call going to Washington a wedding trip."

John laughed. "I think Octavia is going to follow them there. She admitted to me that John's position will not be a very important one, but if she can go there and see that they're properly launched."

"John will love that," Cecily was a little ashamed of her feeling of pleasure at the thought that John's married life wasn't going to be all moonlight and roses.

"Don't worry about John. He knows how to take care of himself. And maybe he won't mind if Octavia persuades George Thompson to buy them a house in Georgetown, or some other suitable place."

Cecily looked at her watch. "I must run, or for the first time I'll be late for work."

She arrived ten minutes before the clock struck eleven. "What has happened to your friend, Dr. Cheney?" Madame Blanchard asked her. "He hasn't been in for a week. The last two times he brought that wretched girl with him. I know the food was all right, but perhaps Della said something to offend him."

"Oh, no. I'm sure Della is not to blame. By this time, he must have met a lot of people and perhaps he's being invited out to meals," Cecily hoped that this explanation would satisfy Madame Blanchard.

Cheney, who had for a while occupied much of her thoughts, had been almost forgotten. Now she thought of him again. He had come there first with Simon and later, she knew, to talk to her. Now that he had found his ideal medium, Tessie Dupree, he no longer needed her.

"The idea of spending another night in the old Boardman house was most unattractive, nor did Cecily know how Dr. Cheney might regard her intrusion..." The story continues on Monday.

THE FLOWERING VINE

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 34

"IT WAS a good party, wasn't it?" Eloise Pincheon said to her granddaughter Cecily. "I know just how nervous Octavia Thompson was. With all her money, she can't make anyone feel at home in her house."

She took the emeralds that Cecily had given her and put them carefully away in a velvet-lined box. "I can remember the first time Mama let me wear these. It was at a dance, too, and I was, or thought I was, madly in love with an older man. A week later his engagement to another girl was announced and I thought my heart would break. Then Major Pincheon came along and I thanked heaven for my escape."

Cecily didn't pretend to misunderstand. "My heart isn't breaking, if it cracked at all, it was the day John came back and I knew that he wasn't exactly what I thought he was."

Eloise rose in quick defense of her favorite. "He hadn't changed at all. John was doomed for worldly success from the moment he was born. And you must admit that you are little fitted for a career hostess in Washington."

"I hate it," Cecily admitted. "I saw Vincent Leary leading that old Randy Chardin out for fresh air. What did he do with him?"

Cecily told her. "He must be terribly clever. I was so afraid that Randy would make a scene. Just who is this Vincent Leary?"

"He says he's a direct descendant of Loghain, the high king of Ireland who was converted to the Christian faith by Saint Patrick. He also says that his grandfather owned a pub in Dublin."

"Then he must be witty. There aren't many men with wit these days. Do you like him?"

Cecily paused before answering. "Like" wasn't exactly the right word. She did like Vincent, but she remembered his kisses on the gallery; she thought of how he had accompanied her to Dr. Cheney's apartment. "Yes, I like him. He's dependable. I think I like him quite a lot."

She was trying to analyze her feeling for Vincent, not so much for her grandmother's information as for her own. "I think I like him, too. Any one who could dispose of Randy Chardin with so little trouble must be dependable. I can't forget that you're a working girl. Run along to bed. I've got a book here that will, I hope, put me to sleep."

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 34

"IT WAS a good party, wasn't it?" Eloise Pincheon said to her granddaughter Cecily. "I know just how nervous Octavia Thompson was. With all her money, she can't make anyone feel at home in her house."

She took the emeralds that Cecily had given her and put them carefully away in a velvet-lined box. "I can remember the first time Mama let me wear these. It was at a dance, too, and I was, or thought I was, madly in love with an older man. A week later his engagement to another girl was announced and I thought my heart would break. Then Major Pincheon came along and I thanked heaven for my escape."

Cecily didn't pretend to misunderstand. "My heart isn't breaking, if it cracked at all, it was the day John came back and I knew that he wasn't exactly what I thought he was."

Eloise rose in quick defense of her favorite. "He hadn't changed at all. John was doomed for worldly success from the moment he was born. And you must admit that you are little fitted for a career hostess in Washington."

"I hate it," Cecily admitted. "I saw Vincent Leary leading that old Randy Chardin out for fresh air. What did he do with him?"

Cecily told her. "He must be terribly clever. I was so afraid that Randy would make a scene. Just who is this Vincent Leary?"

"He says he's a direct descendant of Loghain, the high king of Ireland who was converted to the Christian faith by Saint Patrick. He also says that his grandfather owned a pub in Dublin."

"Then he must be witty. There aren't many men with wit these days. Do you like him?"

Cecily paused before answering. "Like" wasn't exactly the right word. She did like Vincent, but she remembered his kisses on the gallery; she thought of how he had accompanied her to Dr. Cheney's apartment. "Yes, I like him. He's dependable. I think I like him quite a lot."

She was trying to analyze her feeling for Vincent, not so much for her grandmother's information as for her own. "I think I like him, too. Any one who could dispose of Randy Chardin with so little trouble must be dependable. I can't forget that you're a working girl. Run along to bed. I've got a book here that will, I hope, put me to sleep."

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 34

"IT WAS a good party, wasn't it?" Eloise Pincheon said to her granddaughter Cecily. "I know just how nervous Octavia Thompson was. With all her money, she can't make anyone feel at home in her house."

She took the emeralds that Cecily had given her and put them carefully away in a velvet-lined box. "I can remember the first time Mama let me wear these. It was at a dance, too, and I was, or thought I was, madly in love with an older man. A week later his engagement to another girl was announced and I thought my heart would break. Then Major Pincheon came along and I thanked heaven for my escape."

Cecily didn't pretend to misunderstand. "My heart isn't breaking, if it cracked at all, it was the day John came back and I knew that he wasn't exactly what I thought he was."

Eloise rose in quick defense of her favorite. "He hadn't changed at all. John was doomed for worldly success from the moment he was born. And you must admit that you are little fitted for a career hostess in Washington."

"I hate it," Cecily admitted. "I saw Vincent Leary leading that old Randy Chardin out for fresh air. What did he do with him?"

Cecily told her. "He must be terribly clever. I was so afraid that Randy would make a scene. Just who is this Vincent Leary?"

"He says he's a direct descendant of Loghain, the high king of Ireland who was converted to the Christian faith by Saint Patrick. He also says that his grandfather owned a pub in Dublin."

"Then he must be witty. There aren't many men with wit these days. Do you like him?"

Cecily paused before answering. "Like" wasn't exactly the right word. She did like Vincent, but she remembered his kisses on the gallery; she thought of how he had accompanied her to Dr. Cheney's apartment. "Yes, I like him. He's dependable. I think I like him quite a lot."

She was trying to analyze her feeling for Vincent, not so much for her grandmother's information as for her own. "I think I like him, too. Any one who could dispose of Randy Chardin with so little trouble must be dependable. I can't forget that you're a working girl. Run along to bed. I've got a book here that will, I hope, put me to sleep."

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 34

"IT WAS a good party, wasn't it?" Eloise Pincheon said to her granddaughter Cecily. "I know just how nervous Octavia Thompson was. With all her money, she can't make anyone feel at home in her house."

She took the emeralds that Cecily had given her and put them carefully away in a velvet-lined box. "I can remember the first time Mama let me wear these. It was at a dance, too, and I was, or thought I was, madly in love with an older man. A week later his engagement to another girl was announced and I thought my heart would break. Then Major Pincheon came along and I thanked heaven for my escape."

Cecily didn't pretend to misunderstand. "My heart isn't breaking, if it cracked at all, it was the day John came back and I knew that he wasn't exactly what I thought he was."

Eloise rose in quick defense of her favorite. "He hadn't changed at all. John was doomed for worldly success from the moment he was born. And you must admit that you are little fitted for a career hostess in Washington."

"I hate it," Cecily admitted. "I saw Vincent Leary leading that old Randy Chardin out for fresh air. What did he do with him?"

Cecily told her. "He must be terribly clever. I was so afraid that Randy would make a scene. Just who is this Vincent Leary?"

"He says he's a direct descendant of Loghain, the high king of Ireland who was converted to the Christian faith by Saint Patrick. He also says that his grandfather owned a pub in Dublin."

"Then he must be witty. There aren't many men with wit these days. Do you like him?"

Cecily paused before answering. "Like" wasn't exactly the right word. She did like Vincent, but she remembered his kisses on the gallery; she thought of how he had accompanied her to Dr. Cheney's apartment. "Yes, I like him. He's dependable. I think I like him quite a lot."

She was trying to analyze her feeling for Vincent, not so much for her grandmother's information as for her own. "I think I like him, too. Any one who could dispose of Randy Chardin with so little trouble must be dependable. I can't forget that you're a working girl. Run along to bed. I've got a book here that will, I hope, put me to sleep."

From the new novel published by Avalon Books. Copyright, 1964, by Frances Dean Hancock. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 34

"IT WAS a good party, wasn't it?" Eloise Pincheon said to her granddaughter Cecily. "I know just how nervous Octavia Thompson was. With all her money, she can't make anyone feel at home in her house."

She took the emeralds that Cecily had given her and put them carefully away in a velvet-lined box. "I can remember the first time Mama let me wear these. It was at a dance, too, and I was, or thought I was, madly in love with an older man. A week later his engagement to another girl was announced and I thought my heart would break. Then Major Pincheon came along and I thanked heaven for my escape."

Cecily didn't pretend to misunderstand. "My heart isn't breaking, if it cracked at all, it was the day John came back and I knew that he wasn't exactly what I thought he was."

Eloise rose in quick defense of her favorite. "He hadn't changed at all. John was doomed for worldly success from the moment he was born. And you must admit that you are little fitted for a career hostess in Washington."

"I hate it," Cecily admitted. "I saw Vincent Leary leading that old Randy Chardin out for fresh air. What did he do with him?"

Cecily told her. "He must be terribly clever. I was so afraid that Randy would make a scene. Just who is this Vincent Leary?"

"He says he's a direct descendant of Loghain, the high king of Ireland who was converted to the Christian faith by Saint Patrick. He also says that his grandfather owned a pub in Dublin."

"Then he must be witty. There aren't many men with wit these days. Do you like him?"

Cecily paused before answering. "Like" wasn't exactly the right word. She did like Vincent, but she remembered his kisses on the gallery; she thought of how he had accompanied her to Dr. Cheney's apartment. "Yes, I like him. He's dependable. I think I like him quite a lot."

She was trying to analyze her feeling for Vincent, not so much for her grandmother's information as for her own. "I think I like him, too. Any one who could dispose of Randy Chardin with so little trouble must be dependable. I can't forget that you're a working girl. Run along to bed. I've got a book here that will, I hope, put me to sleep."

From the new novel published by Aval

